Rights and Duties Opening

(best if participation by Scouts is done by Webelos Scouts)

Materials:

Flag

words strips for Webelos Scouts to read

Cubmaster or Den leader:

Together let us say the Pledge of Allegiance and the Scout Oath. [Pack says the Pledge of Allegiance and the Scout Oath together]

In the Scout Oath, you promise to do your duty to your country. One way you do that is by being a good citizen. Let's remind ourselves today ways that you and your family members can be a good citizens.

Webelos Scout #1: We can obey the laws.

Webelos Scout #2: We can respect the rights and the property of others.

Webelos Scout #3: We can help the police.

Webelos Scout #4: We can take care of the environment by recycling and conserving.

Webelos Scout #5: We can be informed about what is going on around us.

Webelos Scout #6: We can help change things that are not good.

Cubmaster or Den leader:

When you are an adult you should vote and pay taxes and serve on a jury. Other things that we have a great opportunity to do because of our country are the following...

Webelos Scout #7: We can worship how and where we like.

Webelos Scout #8: We can say what we think.

Webelos Scout #9: We can join other people in peaceful assemblies.

Webelos Scout #10: We can petition the government if we think it is doing something wrong.

Webelos Scout #11: We can own property and choose where we want to live.

Webelos Scout #12: We can get a public school education through the 12th grade.

Webelos Scout #13: We can have a trial by jury if we are accused of a crime.

Webelos Scout #14: We can vote once we are 18 years old.

Cubmaster or Den leader:

We are lucky to have may freedoms in the United States, but always remember that those freedoms come with responsibility. President John F. Kennedy said, "ask not what your country can do for you, but ask what you can do for your country."

Obeying the Law Discussion

Cubmaster or Den leader:

This month we celebrate Presidents Day in our country. Presidents have lots of responsibilities and have to make many decisions while they are acting as our president. There are laws that we all have to obey and we hope that they always want everyone to follow the "rule of law."

What do you think it means when I say "rule of law"?

[Listen to their answers... they probably have a good idea of what it means.]

Make sure they know that rule of law means:

- -Laws apply to everyone, both government officials and private citizens
- -Laws are clear and fair and are evenly applied
- -Laws respect basic rights like people's security.
- -The way laws are created is open and fair.

Is it a good thing that we have laws?

Can you name a law that you have seen people obey? Or disobey? What happens if a law is disobeyed?

We have a Scout Law that we know – how is it our "rule of law"?

Making a Stop Sign

Materials:

Stop sign graphic copied on cardstock Scissors Crayons/Markers Craft sticks (one per Cub Scout) Glue or Stapler/Staples

Instructions:

- 1. Distribute stop sign graphic on cardstock to each Cub Scout.
- 2. Color and then with scissors, cut out the stop sign (order could be switched if needed).
- 3. Attach craft stick to bottom of stop sign with glue or with staples so that you can hold the stop sign using the craft stick as a handle.

Red Light, Green Light

In this game, one Cub Scout plays the "stop light" and the rest try to touch him.

At the start, all of the Cub Scouts form a line about 15 feet away or more from the "stop light".

The "stop light" faces away from the line of kids and says "green light". At this point the kids are allowed to move towards the stoplight.

At any point, the "stop light" may say "red light!" and turn around. If any of the kids are caught moving after this has occurred, they are out.

Play resumes when the "stop light" turns back around and says "green light".

The "stop light" wins if all the kids are out before anyone is able to touch him.

Otherwise, the first player to touch the "stop light" wins the game and earns the right to be "stop light" for the next game.

Smile Closing

Cubmaster:

We have learned much about other countries this week.

People who live in other lands have different customs, different styles of dress and different languages than we do. But there is a universal language understood by everyone in the world. It is a smile.

A smile costs nothing but creates much. It happens in a flash but the memory sometimes lasts forever. It cannot be begged, bought, borrowed, or stolen, but it is something that is of no earthly good unless it is given away. So, if you meet someone who is too weary to give you a smile, leave one of yours. No one needs a smile quite as much as a person who has none left to give.

As you travel through this world, whether you are in a foreign land or your own neighborhood, remember to smile.
